Three hour catered harbour cruise aboard the historic James Craig, for 140 passengers

Sydney Heritage Fleet, a valued partner of the museum, have generously provided a three hour harbour cruise on their beautiful and historic 1874 Tall Ship, James Craig. Departing from Pyrmont, 140 guests will enjoy a memorable outing and an amazing experience on Sydney's stunning harbour while nibbling on grazing platters and sipping wine, beer or soft drinks.

Take the opportunity to learn about this fantastic 19th Century Square-Rigged ship from the crew. Marvel at the amazing restoration of the ship which took 30 years and $A30 million to complete and which was recognised in 2003 when it won the World Ship Trust's prestigious Maritime Medal.

The James Craig is a truly unique function venue that will add a wow factor to any function – birthday, wedding, work function or special event. A function on board the James Craig will make it stand out from the rest! Sydney Heritage Fleet look forward to welcoming the auction prize winner on board. T&Cs supplied when booking. Further information visit www.shf.org.au

Kindly donated by Sydney Heritage Fleet.

From the Region Njaypinya, Djul'djul is the daughter of the famous Galpu clan artist Mithinari Gurruwiwi from whom she has inherited a lot of painting knowledge and skill. She is a very precise and knowledgeable wood carver and painter. Her carvings are sought after by dealers and collectors for their fine attention to detail. Djul'djul's work has featured in numerous exhibitions.

Valued at more than $1500. Opening bid $1000.

Lot 34

Painting by Janet Long Nakamarra Sandy Creek – Ngarnalkurru, 2018

One of a kind acrylic on canvas artwork by aboriginal artist Janet Long with accompanying certificate of authenticity. This painting depicts a Ceremony at Sandy Creek in Ngarnalkurru, a sacred women's place near Willowra in the desert. Janet lived a traditional life in the land of her people, Warntappari. She uses her deep knowledge and her talents as a linguist to translate her Dreamings onto canvas in a way that no other artist is able to achieve. Janet has had exhibitions in China, Australia and the USA.
